4. We also certify that the balance at credit of the Reserve Fund created under Section 337 of Act IV (B.C.) of 1876 as a guarantee for the repayment of the debenture loans amounted on the 31st March 1884 to Rs. 25,49,828-6-9, of which Rs. 850-11-7 were in the hands of the Trustees, Rs. 438-5-5 were at credit of the Trustees in the Bank of Bengal, and the remainder Rs. 25,48,539-5-9 represented the cost of the investments made by the Trustees under the section above quoted.

The Accountant-General of Bengal, one of the Trustees under Section 337 of the Act, has acknowledged in his letter No. B-419, dated 4th August 1884, that the following securities aggregating a nominal value of Rs. 24,04,200 were held on the 31st March 1884 in the custody of the Bank of Bengal on account of the Reserve Fund.

Total nominal value ... 18,11,200 costing Rs. 19,61,899

The balance of the debenture loans raised under Section 334 of Act IV (B.C.) of 1876 previous to 1st April 1881 outstanding on the 1st April 1883 amounted to Rs. 69,99,600, and the due contribution payable to credit of the Reserve Fund upon this balance during the year ending 31st March 1884 was Rs. 1,39,992. This sum should have been credited to the Reserve Fund created by Section 337 of the Act during the year 1883-84 before the 31st March 1884, but we find that a sum of Rs. 1,04,994 only was credited to the Reserve Fund during the year, the remainder having been credited to the fund after the close of the year. The provisions of the law which, it will be remembered, require that the necessary contribution should be set aside yearly—not quarterly—by the Commissioners out of their income before any disbursements are made have not therefore in this instance been fulfilled.

5. A second Reserve Fund has been formed during the course of the year under audit in accordance with the provisions of Section 337-A inserted in Act IV (B.C.) of 1876 by Act VI. (B.C.) of 1881 for the repayment of such debenture loans as have been or will be raised after 1st April 1881 for the purpose of carrying out or extending the water-supply and drainage schemes. This Reserve Fund is formed by a contribution from the General Fund or Water-rate Fund as the case may be of not less than one per cent. on the net amount of all such loans outstanding on the 1st day of April of each year.

Three loans have been raised, as will be seen from the statement above given, since 1st April 1881 for the purpose of carrying out or extending the water-supply and drainage schemes, and one loan has also been raised since 1st April 1881 for the improvement of the Jorabagan bustee. The aggregate nominal value of these loans stands at Rs. 10,48,300, but as one of these loans was raised during the course of the year, that is to say in August 1883, and as no contribution consequently for the second Reserve Fund was due thereupon during 1883-84, that is to say until 1st April 1884, the balance outstanding on the 1st April 1883 amounted to Rs. 9,50,500, and one per cent. on this balance has been duly credited as the due contribution to the Reserve Fund. These contributions, in accordance with the proceedings of a Special Meeting of the Town Council held on 16th May 1878, are set aside every quarter by depositing them in the Bank of Bengal before the due date. It appears open to question, however, whether the wording of the Act does not require these contributions to be set aside at the commencement of each year, and we suggest that this question may be placed before the Commissioners for consideration.

The manner in which the one per cent. contribution to the Reserve Fund directed by Section 337-A has been calculated does not appear to be quite correct. The wording of the section clearly hints the calculation of this contribution to a percentage upon the net amount outstanding on the 1st day of April of each year of all loans raised after 1st April 1881 for the purpose of carrying out or extending the water-supply and drainage schemes. The net amount of loans raised after 1st April 1881 for other purposes than the purpose named in the section cannot therefore be taken into calculation. It follows that the net amount outstanding on the 1st April 1881 of the loan raised for the purpose of improving and renovating the Jorabagan bustee should not have been subjected to the contribution of one per cent. for the Reserve Fund created by Section 337-A, and hence that sum or Rs. 2,505 was contributed in excess to the Reserve Fund.

We certify that the balance at credit of the second Reserve Fund on the 31st March 1884 amounted to Rs. 9,556-7-9, of which Rs. 121-5-7 were in the hands of the Trustees, Rs. 622-10-2 were at credit of the Trustees in the Bank of Bengal, and the remainder Rs. 8,812-8 represented the cost of the investments made by the Trustees in accordance with the provisions of section above quoted. These are detailed thus—

	Rs.	Rs. A.
Government 4 per cent. 1865 promissory notes for	3,000 costing	2,883 12
Municipal 4½ per cent. 1883 debentures for	5,900 „	5,928 12
Total	8,900	8,812 8

and the Accountant-General of Bengal, one of the Trustees under the section in the letter quoted in the preceding paragraph, has acknowledged that these securities were in the possession of the Bank of Bengal on the 31st March 1884, being held by the bank on account of the Reserve Fund.

There is one small point which we would notice in connection with the Reserve Funds. The enactment under which these funds are formed, designates them as Reserve Funds. We would therefore recommend that in all documents, accounts, and official papers they should be so designated, and that the transactions should no longer be recorded on the books under the designation of Sinking Funds.

6. We also certify that the Bank of Bengal has given an acknowledgment by a letter, dated 23rd June 1884, that the following securities were also held in safe custody on account of the Corporation:—

	Rs.
Government paper 4 per cent.	1,39,800 on general account.
Ditto ditto	4,800 on account of Gopal Lall Tagore's Pauper Hospital.
Ditto ditto	5,500 on account of Nemy Churn Mullick's Ghat.
4½ per cent.	500 ditto ditto.
Ditto	6,000 on general account.
Municipal Debentures—
6 per cent.	500 ditto.
4½ per cent.	10,000 ditto.
Total	1,67,100

7. The Bank of Bengal has also acknowledged that it holds in safe custody Government 4 per cent. securities to the nominal value of Rs. 70,000, which have been endorsed by the Administrator-General of Bengal to the Justices of the Peace for the Town of Calcutta on account of the "Market Capital Fund." This is apparently a mistake as the investment in question belongs properly to the Marcus Estate Fund.

This investment has been transferred to the Corporation in virtue of device by the late George Thomas Marcus, formerly a resident of Calcutta, but at the time of his death resident of 31, Devonshire Street, Portland Place, in the city of Westminster, who by his will, dated 5th February 1864, bequeathed the whole of his real property in Calcutta to the Administrator-General of Bengal in trust for the Municipal Commissioners for the city of Calcutta "to be by them employed for the good and benefit of the said city of Calcutta," subject, however, to the payment of an annuity of £250 to a relative named in the will. At the decease of the testator a sum of Rs. 46,790-3-7 was handed over to the Corporation and expended in the erection of the Municipal Office, and by a special arrangement then entered into between the Administrator-General and the Corporation, sufficient assets for the purchase of Government paper to the nominal value of Rs. 70,000 were retained as security for the punctual payment of the annuity. The annuitant having died during the past year, the investment carried out by this arrangement has become the property of the Corporation for the purpose mentioned in the will of Mr. George Thomas Marcus.

8. The transactions relating to the Entally Manufactory, Entally, and other stores have been during the year as below abstracted—

	Value of stores on 31st March 1883.	Purchases, &c., during year.	Adjustment during year.	Value of stores on 31st March 1884.
	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.
Entally Manufactory	23,187 10 9	1,17,825 12 9	1,01,279 1 0	39,734 6 6
Entally Stores	1,16,894 8 0	67,519 9 10	92,801 15 9	91,612 0 1
Nimtolah Stores	6,063 5 6	33,296 4 4	27,686 4 0	12,675 5 1
Baug Bazar Stores	7,505 10 10	10,688 7 6	6,845 9 10	11,348 8 6
Indigenous stores	11,246 3 1	1,19,048 8 9	51,130 5 8	70,163 6 2
Imported stores	34,186 0 7	41,388 14 8	63,006 15 4	12,506 15 11
Jhama Khoe	707 9 0	50,005 7 2	36,775 0 0	14,937 15 5
Total	2,00,690 13 9	4,31,373 1 0	3,79,525 5 1	2,52,538 9 8

It has been found impossible to determine whether these figures are in agreement with the record of actual transactions upon the books of the manufactory and store depôts. Stock lists had not been prepared before the conclusion of the audit, and consequently a detailed comparison of the entries in the store and manufactory accounts with the entries in the general ledger was impracticable.

We propose on some future occasion to examine and to report in detail upon these store accounts in the hope that a more satisfactory conclusion may be arrived at.

9. The advance account shewed on the 31st March 1884 an unadjusted balance of Rs. 14,282-4-11, of which Rs. 13,649-9-1 were in the account relating to the acquisition of land for public purposes, and Rs. 634-11-10 were in the general advance account.

10. There are still a few unsettled objections remaining unexplained, though recorded in our objection book kept at the municipal office, and if necessary, we will address a further communication upon these and other matters of minor importance.

We have the honour to be,

GENTLEMEN,

Your most obedient servants,

R. LOGAN,

Offg. Accountant-General, Bengal.
